SECURITY INTERVIEW:

1 - Files reveal similar information to that reported by LOCAL files. LfV's records, however, indicate IS activity on the part of the SUBJECT as late as 1957.

2 - Information on file indicates the name of Theodor von ALBERT, born 9 October 1922 in Planegg, Germany, appears on list of persons, dated 8 September 1953, who were suspected of Soviet intelligence activities by the British Army in Austria. Files further indicate BfV report on unknown date in 1954 that SUBJECT was suspected of intelligence activities on behalf of Hungary. (Unavail). Additional information indicates SUBJECT, employed as a source by USI, was dropped by 66th Intelligence Group in February 1960 when it was learned SUBJECT was suspected of hostile intelligence activities.
